Join fellow Osher members for our Fall semester kickoff event at the Montgomery County Campus. Dr. Galen Stocking will address how Americans get their news, attitudes towards the news media, the modern news consumer and related trends over time. Galen Stocking is a Research Associate at Pew Research Center, where he focuses on questions related to journalism and public opinion. He has contributed to the Center’s research on Google search activity about the Flint water crisis, campaign communication, long-form journalism, and coverage of politics on Reddit. Stocking received his PhD from the University of California, Santa Barbara in Political Science, where his dissertation investigated the influence of the media on the public in the modern news environment.

Journalism and media research at Pew Research Center assesses the state of news and information in a changing society, including how news is consumed, who is reporting it and how technology is shaping the information landscape.

The lecture will be held from 10:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon, followed by lunch from 12:00 noon to 1:30pm on the second floor in the lounge area.

Reservation must be made by August 31st, 2017

Please return Reservation Form for the Galen Stocking Lecture by August 31st to the Osher office at JHU, 9601 Medical Center Drive, Rockville, MD 20850.
