Do you miss your Osher friends?
Do you like Mystery novels?
Native American legends?

Osher Professor Melinda Kramer will pull all of these elements together for a Lecture and Lunch on Wednesday, August 15, 2018.

How does Lecture and Lunch work?

- Read the mystery novel Spider Woman’s Daughter by Anne Hillerman between now and August 15.
- If you have any mystery novels you want to trade, bring them with you that day.
- Bring your friends and join us at the JHU Montgomery County Campus.
- Melinda Kramer will lecture and lead a discussion about Spider Woman’s Daughter and the genre of mystery in general.
- New Mexico ethnic cuisine lunch will be served.

Please return by August 8, 2018, for the Mystery Lecture and Lunch to:
Osher at JHU, 9601 Medical Center Drive, Rockville, MD 20850.

Name ____________________________________________
Phone ____________________________________________
Guest ____________________________________________
No. of reservations______ @ $20 each = Total $_________

☐ Check enclosed made payable to Johns Hopkins University

Credit Card Information  ☐ MasterCard  ☐ Visa  ☐ Discover

Account # ___________________________________________
Exp. Date ___________________________________________
Security Code _________________________________________
Zip Code ____________________________________________
Cardholder’s signature ___________________________________________