UNPACKING INCOME DISPARITY/INEQUALITY: STRATEGIES TO DISMANTLE

Whose problem is it?
EVERYONE'S!
Women comprise 50% of the population and represent a significant portion of the labor force since its inception in the US. Despite the contribution of women, they are not paid equally for their talents, skills, and ideas. During this round table we will discuss the current status, explore the implications, share resources, inform on advocacy, and elicit empowerment.
