Osher at Johns Hopkins University Celebrate the Inaugural 2019 Support & Enhance Campaign
Friday, November 1st, 12:15 – 5:00 p.m.
Location: Johns Hopkins University Gilchrist Hall, 9601 Medical Center Drive, Rockville, MD 20850

Entertainment:

The History of Comedy
David Misch will entertain us with a multimedia presentation that combines copious examples from comedy experts, with his deep knowledge of both history & comedy that he has written and produced for over 40 years. Among his credits are Mork and Mindy, Duckman, Saturday Night Live, The Muppets Take Manhattan, and a wide variety of projects for film and television. David is an author, playwright, songwriter, blogger, and recovered stand-up comic. His books include Funny: The Book, and A Beginner's Guide To Corruption.

What’s so Great About Jazz?
Matt Belzer; will treat us to a lesson and performance on Jazz music as it is woven into America’s cultural fabric. Jazz,” he says, has “a set of traditions and a community.” Matt performs regularly at the Kennedy Center, and Library of Congress. His performances with artists include Smokey Robinson, Bernadette Peters, Barry Manilow, and Martha Reeves and the Vandellas. Matt recently completed his second album with the Anansi Trio featuring his original compositions. Matt is the Director of Jazz Studies at UMBC.
